The first of the three minute addresses on Our Piedge and Its Valu to the Young Christian was by Rev. G. H. Ewing of Norwich Town. He spoke along the line of trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for cley. Some people never grow old. up the emotion and spurs the ambiand Jeremiah. Jesus himself saw visions, those of his God, and of the great kingdom that should unfold and finally encompass the wohle world. Paul was ever having visions; faith a vision. If a boy has true faith he sees as a vision the better boy he will be tomorrow. Vision of the Real Christ. He pointed out in the story Christ's temptation by Satan that there are some visions we should refuse to his hearers that he came to recommen the vision of the real Christ and soud build a picture of Him by hard Bible study and earnest prayer. He said in all his study in coilege and seminary that he never realized the great true Christ until by the study of missions, after he became a pastor he came to know the great miracle of the twentieth century being done in the mission fields. We may live and die without true vision if we lazily hang around and try to get what we can out of life and not do very much.

Importance of Reports.

He spoke of the importance of society reports, and said in closing: Be true son of God and claim a blessing; he obedient to the suggestion of the vision. Jesus' every energy was by Rev. J.
